Applications and payments must be made in advance at the office, Taylor's Range, Basseterre, during office hours, 9:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday to Friday. Payment by cheque is preferred or the exact amount in cash. Gate passes will be issued per vehicle. Cheques can be made payable to The Brimstone Hill Society.

School children and accompanying teachers/supervisors as well as groups hosted by and/or comprising Government departments are allowed free admission after the approval of a formal request made by the school or appropriate Government Ministry. Letters should be sent to the office on Taylor's Range, Basseterre.

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING

1. Large buses may not be able to pass through the archways.
2. Drinking water must be taken; the water at the Hill is not safe for drinking.
3. Barbecues and lighting of fires are not permitted. Food should be prepared in advance.
4. Children must be supervised and escorted around the citadel, museum and visitors' centre. These are 'quiet' areas and not for games. It is dangerous for children to be unsupervised around Fort George (the citadel).
5. Games and other organised activities may be played in the Cul-de-Sac, located below the Parade.
6. All litter must be disposed of. Please take your own garbage bags.
7. Music, of a quiet nature, or a public address system, may only be allowed by special permission.
8. Shaded areas are limited, so tents may be erected provided advance permission is given.
9. All visitors must abide by the Regulations against:
 - littering
 - removing any plant, animal or object
 - cutting or injuring any plant or animal
 - damaging or defacing any structure (such as carving or writing graffiti)
 - playing or reproducing loud music or amplified sounds
 - abusive language and other forms of disorderly conduct
